

Thammasat Neurological Surgery's 1ST SKULL BASE CADAVERIC AND LIVE SURGERY WORKSHOP

Prof. Kenji Ohata

28 – 30 January 2018

Course Director

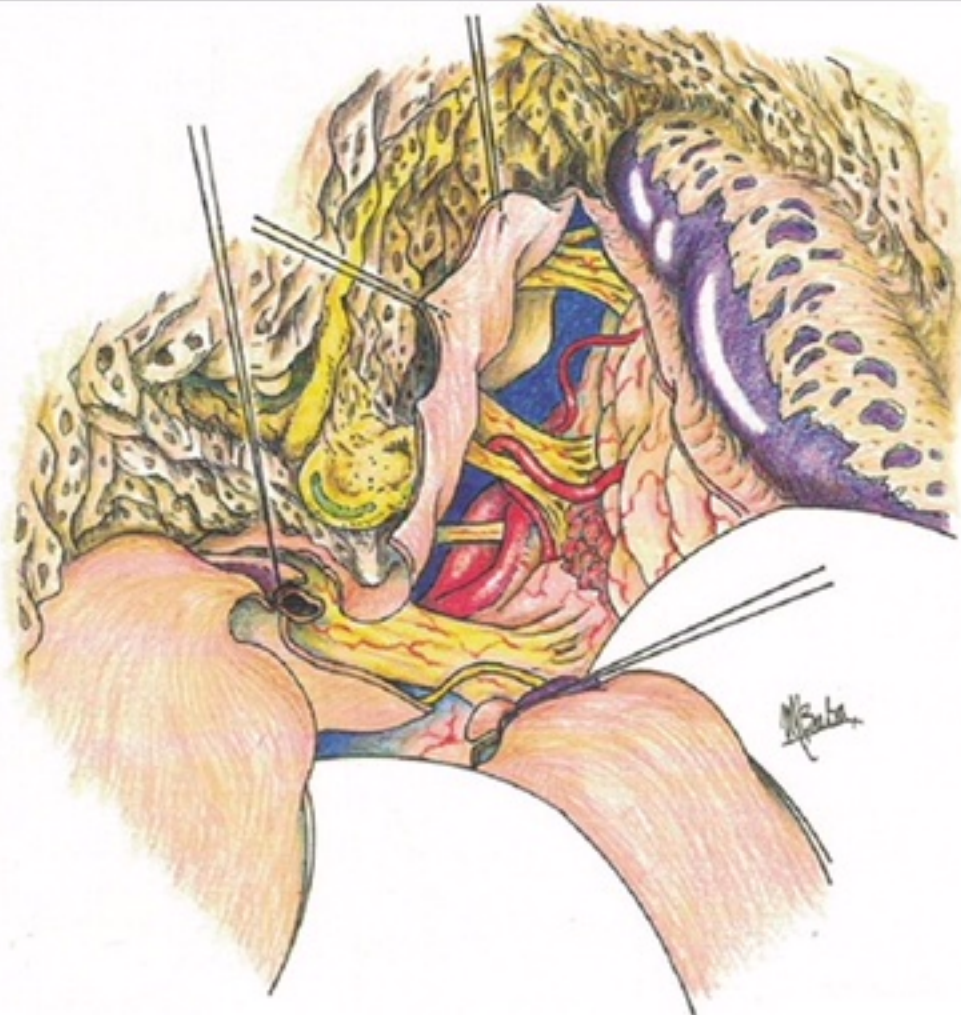

Asst. Prof. Pornchai Yodwisithsak

Honorable Guest

Prof. Kenji Ohata, Dr. Takeo Goto

Dr. Takeo Goto

Agenda Highlights

- Surgical Indication of Orbitozygomatic (OZA) and Combined Transpetrosal Approaches (CTPA);
- Anatomy of skull base related to OZA and CTPA;
- "Pearls" surgical techniques on OZA and CTPA;
- Cautions of OZA and CTPA;
- Complication management of OZA and CTPA;
- Q&A/Discussions with the experts;
- Hands-On Session:
 - Step-by-Step exclusive techniques of OZA;
 - Step-by-Step exclusive techniques of CTPA;
- Live surgery demonstration from indicated case for OZA and CTPA from the initiators.

Venue :

- Faculty of Medicine, Thammasat University, Pathum-Thani, Thailand

Course Fee :

- Cadaveric workshop (28 January 2018)
 - Participants : 15,000 THB/person (14 seats only)
 - Observers : 3,000 THB/ person
- Live surgery (Jan 29, 2018)
 - Observers : 2,500 THB/person
- Live surgery (Jan 30, 2018)
 - Observers : 2,500 THB/person
(incl. lunch, breaks, surgical gowns, and presidential dinner)

Registration : Please use the registration form

Further Information :

Asst. Prof. Pree Nimmannitya
Tel : +6681-686-1667, +662-926-9523
Fax : +6681-926-9530
E-mail : preensx@gmail.com